WEEK OF 11.5.23

PRESCHOOL

Our theme verse is Ephesians 5:14. From I Kings 17:7-6, we learned that God is faithful to us! When a widow trusted God and shared her food with Elijah, God kept his promise to her, and she had plenty to eat.

- Is it hard to keep our promises? What promises has God given us?
- Consider shining for Jesus as a family by going to the store and buying groceries or gift cards for another family in need.

ELEMENTARY

Our theme verse is Ephesians 5:14. In I Kings 17:7-16, God leads Elijah to a widow during a famine. She trusts God, shares food with Elijah, and is miraculously provided for. God kept His promise to her, and He also keeps His promises to us.

- What promises has God made to us?
- What circumstances have we gone through where we had to trust God to provide?
- Later in the story, the widow's son died, but God brought him back to life. Do we know anyone who is sick or sad right now? How can we shine and encourage them?
